

OM SRI SAIRAM

REPORT WRITING

REPORT –
'REPORTARE' –

CARRY BACK

A description of an event carried back to someone who was not present on the scene

WHAT IS A REPORT?

A report is a formal communication written for a specific purpose; it includes a description of procedures followed by collection and analysis of data, their significance, the conclusions drawn from them, and recommendations, if required.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A REPORT

Technical Reports are the result of:

- careful investigation
- sound thinking
- logical organisation
- clear and formal writing

TYPES OF REPORTS

```
graph TD; A[TYPES OF REPORTS] --> B[ORAL(Face to face communication,ephemeral)]; A --> C[WRITTEN(More accurate,permanent, can be referred back)]; C --> D[INFORMATIVE]; C --> E[INTERPRETIVE/ANALYTICAL]; C --> F[ROUTINE];
```

ORAL (Face to face communication, ephemeral)

WRITTEN (More accurate, permanent, can be referred back)

INFORMATIVE

INTERPRETIVE/ANALYTICAL

ROUTINE

INFORMATIONAL: Contains only the data collected or facts observed

Presents the situation as it is and not as it should be

INTERPRETIVE: Contains facts with evaluation, interpretation of data, the reporter's conclusion, recommendations for actions

ROUTINE: Formal, written in prescribed form (just ticks), periodic

Eg. Appraisal reports, feedback forms, progress reports, inspection reports

STRUCTURE/ FORMAT

- ❑ TITLE: OVERVIEW OF THE REPORT
- ❑ REPORT PREPARED BY: NAME, DESIGNATION
- ❑ REPORT SUBMITTED TO: NAME AND DESIGNATION
- ❑ DATE: 7TH NOV. 2019
- ❑ TABLE OF CONTENT
- ❑ SUMMARY/ ABSTRACT OF THE CONTENT OF THE REPORT
- ❑ OBJECTIVES: RESTATING THE GIVEN TASK
- ❑ INTRODUCTION/ PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND
- ❑ WORK COMPLETED & WORK SCHEDULED (in case of progress reports)
- ❑ PROBLEMS/ DISCUSSION
- ❑ CONCLUSION
- ❑ RECOMMENDATIONS: STEPS WHICH COULD BE TAKEN FOR BETTER RESULTS

SIGNATURE